

Special edition

Waiting for the I CARE Project Final Conference ... Save the Date!

The I CARE Final
Conference

The I CARE final conference will be held in Bergamo (IT) on the next 21st of March in Papa Giovanni XXIII Conference Centre.

During the event, all project partners, experts in the field of ECVET and vocational training, local authorities and practitioners will discuss project achievements and possible applications of the model in the field of VET and labour market services.

The final programme of the event is being finalised and will be published on the project website at the soonest.

For being updated, please visit the project website

Other news in brief ...

Polish National Workshop

The Polish national workshop took place in Poznan last 23rd of January 2013 and was organised by the project partner SIC! Foundation. The stakeholders participating in the event had the opportunity to get acquainted with the I CARE model and to discuss its possible application in Poland

ECVET Pilot Projects
Seminar

The 4th joint seminar of the ECVET pilot projects (2nd generation) will take place next 7th and 8th of March in Paris, and will address the topics of: solutions put in place to the validation and recognition of learning outcomes and how to get VET-providers involved in using ECVET? What changes does it imply for them?

For further information <http://www.ecvet-projects.eu/Seminars/Default.aspx>

To contact the ICARE team
gmallone@cefass.it